The National Association of Residential Property Managers (NARPM), Oahu Chapter installed its 2009 officers at a luncheon meeting held Tuesday, January 13, at the Japanese Cultural Center.

Primrose Leong-Nakamoto RMP, CRS, GRI, ABR, a Realtor and Property Manager at Nakamoto Realty LLC, has been elected President. Other officers are: Vice President - Darlene Higa RMP of The Realty Company Limited, Secretary - Cheryl Kunimoto of Marie Hansen Properties, Inc., Treasurer - Laurene Young RMP of Lui & Young Realty, Inc., and Past President - Richard Vierra RMP of Hawaii Reserves, Inc.

The National Association of Residential Property Managers is a professional organization that promotes education, designations, and networking as a resource to empower its members with knowledge and skill. The Association administers the Residential Management Professional (RMP), the Master Property Manager (MPM), and the Certified Residential Management Company (CRMC) certification programs.

The Oahu Chapter, the largest in the nation with 145 members, holds monthly membership meetings and a day-long seminar in August for both the public and professionals in the field.
